Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs

Training Announcement

National Incident-Based Reporting System (NIBRS)

Presented by FBI Regional Trainer, Brad Zoladz

Dates: April 24 & 25, 2017, 8:00am - 5:00pm

Location: Cowlitz County Training Center: The Boathouse
1942 1st Avenue, Kelso WA 98626
(Next to the Cowlitz County Justice Center)

Class Description: This two-day basic course provides a general overview of NIBRS. Activities and discussion center on jurisdictional guidelines, offense definitions, and data field completion.

Class Registration: Class size is limited to 50; e-mail the attendee's name, agency, phone number, and e-mail address to cjis@waspc.org or call (360) 486-2380 and ask for the CJIS Department.

This training is offered in coordination with the WASPC CJIS Department, State UCR Program.
WASPC CJIS team members will be in attendance to answer state-related questions.

CJIS
Criminal Justice Information Support
Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program
National Incident-Based Reporting System (NIBRS)