You are invited to attend an important training workshop on the
Statewide Automated Victim Information and Notification Service (SAVIN), Protective Order Notification Program, Jail Booking and Reporting System (JBRS), Unknown Suspect DNA Project and Offender Watch

Provided by the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs

UPCOMING TRAINING

Lewis County: Tuesday, November 8, 2011
9 a.m. - 11 a.m.
Lewis County Law & Justice Center
345 W. Main Street, 1st Floor
Chehalis WA 98532
Directions

- SAVIN
The Statewide Automated Victim Information and Notification system for change in custody status for offenders in jail. The program will also soon cover offenders in prison.

- The SAVIN Protective Order program
Vital notification program for Protective Order petitioners.

- Jail Booking and Reporting System (JBRS)
A statewide and national investigative tool for criminal justice agencies.

- Unknown Suspect DNA Rapid Response Project
For sexual assault, sexually motivated homicides and, now, all child cases.

- Offender Watch
The new public website for monitoring registered sex offenders in your community.
-
- National Precursor Log Exchange (NPLEx) is a real-time electronic logging system used to track sales of over-the-counter (OTC) cold and allergy medications containing precursors to the illegal drug, methamphetamine.

This FREE workshop will cover:
- What the services are.
- How they work.
- How to access information.
- How to register for notification.
- Upcoming new programs.

To register:

Fax form to Dawn Larsen, Projects Director at 360-486-2381, or send via e-mail to dlarsen@waspc.org or cjordan@waspc.org

Name: _____ E-mail address: _____

Agency:_____ Number attending: _____

Trainings are for anyone who has early contact with victims of crime – law enforcement, prosecuting attorney office staff, crime victim advocates, crisis lines, emergency rooms. Share this information throughout your community.