INTRODUCTION

This is the twenty-seventh annual report of criminal offenses, arrests, law enforcement officers killed or assaulted, and full-time law enforcement employees produced by the Washington Uniform Crime Reporting Program (WUCR). Funding for WUCR is provided by a contract agreed upon with the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission (CJTC). Administration of WUCR is the responsibility of the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs (WASPC). WUCR is unique in that it is the only state UCR program which is sponsored, administered and supported by an organization of contributing agency administrators, rather than a bureau or department of state government.

WASHINGTON UNIFORM CRIME REPORTING PROGRAM

Although the impetus for collecting nationwide crime information dates back to the 1890's, no ongoing program was initiated until the committee on uniform crime records of the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) was established in 1917. This committee's responsibility to provide management information to law enforcement agencies was eventually turned over to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in 1930, when the FBI received a congressional mandate to collect and disseminate national crime information. The IACP has continued to serve the Uniform Crime Reporting Program (UCR) in an advisory capacity and has been joined in this responsibility by the National Sheriffs Association.

Data for Crime in Washington State 2005 are compiled from monthly UCR reports submitted by individual law enforcement agencies throughout the State of Washington. WUCR was activated in October 1979 and began the collection of monthly reports from contributing agencies in January 1980. At the present time, the UCR program is operated on a semi-annual and computerized basis. The computer program is designed to provide automated data input processing and provides various programs that are necessary for statistical purposes in the criminal justice system.

OBJECTIVES OF WASHINGTON'S UCR

Increasing attention has been focused on the problem of crime in our communities in recent years. Because of this attention, many segments of our population need more complete information for a variety of reasons.

Citizens are understandably concerned about the possibility of becoming victims of crime but may not know what the real probability is. Law enforcement professionals, managers and administrators who must focus on crime in their own jurisdictions, also need to know what is occurring in surrounding jurisdictions in order to deploy personnel and equipment more efficiently to protect citizens and bring criminals to justice. Legislators need statewide information about crime in order to pass realistic laws that will increase the stability of our society. Researchers and planners need to know what is actually happening to predict trends and recommend changes.

The objectives of Crime in Washington State 2005 are to implement and administer a uniform system of collecting crime and arrest statistical data from contributing law enforcement agencies in the State of Washington and present the information needed by each of these groups. This information will not in itself prevent crime, but it may encourage segments of society to understand the problem and to work together with law enforcement agencies to reduce crime. Additional objectives of Crime in Washington State 2005 when compiled and evaluated are:

1. To identify the number of crimes reported by contributing agencies.
2. To identify the geographical distribution of reported offenses.
3. To determine whether or not reported crimes have increased or decreased.
4. To determine whether or not reported crimes have increased or decreased by population groups.
5. To determine the number of clearances and the clearance rate for reported offenses.
6. To determine the reported number of arrests by charge, age, sex and race.
7. To determine the number of law enforcement officers assaulted and killed.
8. To determine the number of commissioned (sworn) and civilian law enforcement employees by sex.
9. To determine the rate per population group of commissioned (sworn) and civilian law enforcement employees.

CRIME FACTORS

Care should be taken in drawing conclusions and making decisions about problems based solely on crime and arrest data that is reported to WUCR. Factors relating to crime reporting practices, law enforcement policies, population characteristics and attitudes all contribute to variation in reported data. Some general factors which may affect the amount of crime reported and type of crime committed are:

1. The density and size of the community population and of its surrounding area.
2. The variations in composition of the population, particularly to age.
3. The economic status, education and recreation characteristics of the community population.
4. The stability of population with respect to residents' mobility, commuting patterns, and transient factors.
5. The climate, including seasonal weather conditions, and other geographical variations.
6. The religious characteristics of the population.
7. The effective strength of law enforcement agencies.
8. The policies of other components of the criminal justice system (i.e., prosecutorial, judicial, correctional and probational).
9. The attitude of the public toward law enforcement problems.
10. The crime reporting practices of the citizenry.
11. The administrative and investigative follow-up of the local law enforcement agency, including the degree of adherence to crime reporting standards.

WUCR STATISTICAL INTERPRETATION

Statistics are a tool used to summarize information so that patterns or trends become clearer. All statistics must be interpreted with an understanding of just what it is that they can say. Too often, numbers of the type in this report are used incorrectly to draw conclusions that the statistics simply do not support. In order to avoid this error, it is necessary to know what information is included and how it is reported.

To obtain accurate information from many different agencies, the national UCR program has to precisely define the methods for counting the number of offenses, arrests, clearances and value of stolen or recovered property. The methods of counting and some resulting limitations are explained below.

Classification of Offenses

UCR divides offenses into two major classifications which are designated Part I and Part II offenses. This distinction is important to keep in mind because different information is collected for each. Part I offenses include (1) violent crimes: murder and non-negligent manslaughter, forcible rape, robbery, and aggravated assault; and (2) property crimes: burglary, larceny-theft, motor vehicle theft and (since January, 1979) arson. These reported Part I offenses comprise the FBI crime index. All other offenses are classified under Part II offenses. Part I offenses are used to calculate the crime index and crime rate.

All offenses are classified on the basis of law enforcement investigation in accordance with UCR offense definitions (which are not necessarily identical to the revised code of Washington definitions). Because WUCR identifies and tallies a police problem, offense classifications are not based on the findings of a court, medical examiner, jury or other judicial findings.

Counting the Offenses

The number of offenses is counted only for Part I crimes and simple assault. The method of counting varies with the type of crime committed, and it is important to remember that the number of offenders does not determine the number of offenses.

For murder, non-negligent manslaughter, forcible rape and aggravated assault, one offense is counted for EACH VICTIM, regardless of the number of offenders involved.

For robbery and larceny, one offense is counted for EACH DISTINCT OPERATION that is separate in time and place. The number of victims in any one operation does not determine the number of offenses. For example, if 20 people are robbed in a bar at the same time, only one offense has occurred. However, if that robber leaves the bar and holds up a passerby, a second offense has occurred. For burglary, one offense is counted for each structure that is illegally entered. However, when the structure is an apartment house, business, or office building in which units are leased for a period of time, one offense is counted for each unit burglarized.

For motor vehicle theft, one offense is counted for each vehicle stolen.

NOTE: Attempts to commit any of the crime index offenses are counted as actual offenses, except that attempts to kill and assault to kill are counted as aggravated assaults.

For multiple offenses that occur in one crime incident, only the most serious offense is counted. Part I crimes are ranked according to seriousness and appear in order from most serious to least serious crimes. Example: a robber takes a man's wallet and then beats him causing serious injury. Both a robbery and an aggravated assault have occurred, but because robbery is considered by UCR to be more serious, only the robbery is counted. This is known as the HIERARCHY RULE. From one perspective, this method of counting seriously understates the crime problem, but from another, it prevents undue inflation of crime statistics.

- NOTE:
1. Arson is an exception to the above rule and is counted separately from other offenses.
 2. The number of offenses is not reported for Part II offenses.

Arrests

Arrest information is collected for all Part I and Part II offenses according to the age, sex and race of the offender. It is not possible, however, to correlate race with sex or specific ages because the information is collected independently, thus limiting analysis. Furthermore, arrest figures cannot be directly related to the number of crimes cleared because the arrest totals count all offenders arrested for each offense, and clearance-totals count only the offense for which an arrest or arrests have occurred.

Clearances

An offense is considered cleared (solved) when at least one offender is arrested for a crime, even though several may have been involved. Offenses may also be cleared by exceptional means when the offender commits suicide, makes a dying declaration, confesses while in custody or serving time for another crime, is prosecuted in another jurisdiction for the same offense, is a juvenile who is handled by notifying the parents, or when the victim refuses to prosecute or another jurisdiction refuses to extradite the offender, etc.

Clearances are counted as "adult" and "juvenile". A "juvenile" clearance is counted only when juveniles are exclusively involved in the clearance of an offense. If the arrest of both adults and juveniles result in a clearance, it is counted as an "adult" clearance.

NOTE: Not all crimes are cleared within the calendar year in which the offense occurs.

Information Grouping

The crime statistics reported by an individual agency indicate what is happening in one particular area, but to make rational comparisons among a number of jurisdictions, communities with similar characteristics need to be grouped together. It may be important to know how a city compares with cities of similar size, or how patterns of crime differ in various types of communities. Grouping agencies with similar characteristics allows these determinations to be made. Aside from being merely interesting, such comparative analysis provides the basic information for long-range criminal justice planning.

WUCR groups jurisdictions on the basis of population size in this report, and if any types of comparisons are to be made the reader should also consider what types of communities are being compared. Grouping by population size considers only the population of the reporting area. It does not consider proximity to a major metropolitan area in spite of the fact that widely different crime patterns could be expected in a city of 30,000 which is a suburb of Seattle or Tacoma and one which is in a rural area. In this report, grouping by population does not take into account the urban/suburban/rural character of the area, and includes a wide range of populations in each category. For use in interpreting this report, the WUCR grouping systems are listed below:

POPULATION GROUPINGS - CITIES, TOWNS AND SHERIFFS DEPARTMENTS

GROUP	POPULATION
1	over 250,000
2	100,000 to 250,000
3	50,000 to 100,000
4	25,000 to 50,000
5	10,000 to 25,000
6	5,000 to 10,000
7	2,500 to 5,000
8	under 2,500

CRIME INDEX

The crime index is a basic measure of crime which can be used for comparing the extent of crime among cities, counties and states of similar size. The index is simply the total number of certain offenses that occur in a given area in a given calendar period (usually quarterly and annually). The offenses are murder, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny-theft, motor vehicle theft and arson.

The offenses were selected as indicators of the total amount of criminal activity because they are serious offenses that are the focus of widespread concern. They occur with sufficient frequency to reflect fluctuations in the overall level of criminal activity. They are most likely to be reported and reported accurately, to law enforcement due to their seriousness. They are offenses that can clearly and specifically be defined. Notwithstanding its usefulness, the index does have limitations.

The relationship between the index offenses and total criminal activity, both reported and unreported, has never been firmly established. The varying severity of offenses is not taken into account, resulting in equal weight being given to a shoplifting and a forcible rape. Furthermore, the actual incidence of crime in a city may not be accurately depicted by the index if the majority of the city's crime involves non-index offenses such as gambling and narcotics.

CRIME RATE

The crime rate is based on the index, but adjusts the index for variances in population by indicating the number of index offenses for each 1,000 persons (other base population increments may be used such as the number of index offenses per 100,000). This means, that comparisons may be made among several areas with different populations, or within one area with different populations over a period of time, without the information being biased by population differences. For most general comparisons, the crime rate is probably the most accurate to use.

To calculate the crime rate, first divide the population of the area by 1,000, and divide the crime index by that answer. For example, if a city has a population of 273,000 and a crime index of 21,257 the calculations would be:

1. 273,000 divided by 1,000 = 273.0
2. 21,257 divided by 273.0 = 77.86

Thus, although the city's crime index is 21,257, its crime rate (the number of crimes for each 1,000 people) is 77.86.

Law Enforcement Officers Assaulted 1996 - 2005

Law Enforcement Officers Killed or Assaulted

Law enforcement officers may become victims of assault as a consequence of their occupations. The Uniform Crime Report addresses all assaults on officers, which involve more than mere verbal abuse or minor resistance to an arrest.

In 2005, one law enforcement officer was accidentally killed in the line of duty in the State of Washington.

In 2005, contributing agencies reported 1,100 officer assaults with 22.5% of the total assaults resulting in personal injury to the officer. The type of activity in which an officer was most likely to be assaulted was responding to disturbance calls, which accounted for 31.4% of the total officers assaulted. Other activities of significance were: Attempting other arrests, 24.3% of the total; investigating suspicious persons or circumstances, 12.6% of the total; traffic pursuits and stops, 7.5% of the total; and handling or transporting prisoners, 7.3% of the total. During 2005, police assaults were cleared (by arrest or exceptional means) 91.3% of the time.

Hands, fists, and feet were the primary weapons used in 84.0% of the total assaults, followed by other dangerous weapons (not a knife or firearm), 11.0%; firearm, 2.8%; and knife or cutting instrument, 2.2%. The type of assignment in which most assaults occurred was a one-officer vehicle assisted, resulting in 565 assaults or 51.4%, followed by one-officer vehicle alone, with 278 assaults or 25.3%. During a 24-hour period using 8-hour shifts, 8 p.m. to 4 a.m. reflected the most assaults, 555 assaults, or 50.5% of the total. The fewest assaults occurred between 4 a.m. and 12 p.m., 195 or 17.7%.

These facts show that officers stand the highest risk of assault when responding to disturbance calls between the hours of 8 p.m. and 4 a.m., in a one-officer vehicle. The offender is most likely to use his hands, fists, and feet as a weapon.

In Memoriam

Officer Jackson (Jack) V. Lone

Seattle Police Department

On March 16, 2005, Harbor Patrol Officer Jackson Lone was responding to a call on the Lake Union waterway. He slipped into the water as he attempted to tie off a tugboat. He was pulled from the water by his partner and response crews from the Harbor Patrol and the North Precinct began CPR. Officer Lone was transported to Harborview Medical Center, where he later succumbed to his injuries.

Officer Lone, 39 years of age and an 18-year veteran of the Seattle Police Department, worked in a variety of assignments including patrol in the East Precinct, Narcotics Unit and Fugitive Warrants Unit, as well as a year-long assignment with the DEA Task Force. Officer Lone was survived by his wife Jeannie and his 18-month old son Dawson.

Washington State Hate Crime Trend 1996 - 2005

Number of Incidents

Hate Bias

Introduction

In response to the passage of the Hate Crime Statistics Act of 1990, the Washington State Legislature directed every law enforcement agency within Washington to report hate bias offenses to the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs.

FBI reporting guidelines and forms are used and the data is forwarded to the FBI for inclusion in the national statistics. In keeping with the Washington State Malicious Harassment Act, two additional motivational categories were added for our state: anti-disability (physical, mental, sensory), and anti-gender (male and female). Hate crime offenses with an anti-handicap or anti-gender motivation are not forwarded to the FBI.

Determining the prevalence of hate crime is an important responsibility for the entire law enforcement community. Tremendous interest has been shown by the general public, law enforcement agencies, legislative bodies, human interest groups, and others relative to the collection of hate crime data.

The commitment of Washington State law enforcement is the key to the success of Washington State's hate crime data collection program. Without law enforcement's active participation in the collection of these statistics, this report would not be possible.

Hate Crime Definition and Methodology

The Washington State Hate Crime Malicious Harassment Act defines hate crime as criminal offenses that manifest evidence motivated by the offender's bias against the victim's race, religion, ethnicity, sexual orientation, disability or gender.

Because of the difficulty of ascertaining the offender's subjective motivation, bias is reported when the law enforcement investigation reveals sufficient objective facts to lead a reasonable person to conclude that the offender's actions were motivated, in whole or in part, by bias.

Hate crimes are not separate, distinct offenses, but rather traditional crimes motivated by the offender's bias. The eleven offenses collected in the Hate Crime reporting program are the eight Index offenses (murder, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny-theft, motor vehicle theft, and arson) plus simple assault, intimidation, and vandalism. Words alone do not constitute an offense unless the context or circumstances surrounding the words indicate the words are a threat. Threatening words do not constitute an offense if it is apparent to the victim that the person does not have the ability to carry out the threat.

A hate crime incident can involve more than one offense, victim, and/or offender. For counting purposes, one offense is counted for each victim of a crime against a person, and one offense is counted for each distinct incident of a crime against property, regardless of the numbers of victims.

Following a calendar quarter, law enforcement agencies submit a Hate Crime Incident Report for each bias-motivated incident and a summary report for the quarter. If there were no hate crime incidents during a quarter, the agency still reports the summary that will show there were no hate crime incidents.

2005 HATE BIAS CRIME

Volume

During 2005, 171 bias motivated criminal incidents were reported by 271 law enforcement agencies in 39 counties. The 171 incidents involved 229 separate offenses, 245 victims, and 167 known offenders. It is important to remember that there can be more than one offense within a single incident.

	2004	2005	% of Change
Reported Incidents	177	171	-3.4%
Reported Victims	241	245	1.7%
Reported Known Offenders	174	167	-4.0%
Reported Offenses	227	229	0.9%

Offenses

Crimes against persons comprised 72% of the 229 offenses reported during 2005. Intimidation was the single most frequently-reported hate crime among all offenses measured, accounting for 41% of the total. Following were vandalism of property, 26%; simple assault, 23%; aggravated assault, 7%; robbery, burglary, larceny, arson, totaling 3%; and murder, 0.4%. There were no reported offenses of rape or motor vehicle theft related to hate crime in 2005.
