

Washington Association of Sheriffs & Police Chiefs
2017 Spring Exposition & Training Conference

Wednesday, May 24, 2017 Training Day Schedule

8:00 AM	5:00 PM	Corrections/Jail Managers Training Modules	Room 206C
		8:00 AM to 10:00 AM Jail Booking and Release Data – Jamie Weimer, Member Outreach & Programs Manager, WASPC This session will provide an overview of the use of jail data to support the Jail Booking and Reporting (JBRS) System and the Statewide Automated Victim Information Notification (SAVIN) System. The session will also include information on the variety of ways jail data is used to help federal, state and local agencies to determine eligibility for services per RCW 70.48.100. This session will be interactive and we expect to have discussion on how Washington jails use their booking systems and the types of data entered into those systems especially relative to out of custody offenders.
		10:30 AM to 12:00 PM Corrections Academy Update—Brandon Rogel, Assistant Commander, Corrections Division, CJTC Corrections Commander Rogel will provide an update regarding the Corrections Officers Academy. Topics: current academy structure, training and performance matters, testing and assessment, and professionalism and culture. We will also be discussing the challenges of a 160-hour academy in meeting the training needs for newly hired corrections professionals and how jails can best integrate their pre and post academy training to align and enhance the skills of their new corrections officer/deputy.
		1:00 PM to 3:00 PM Best Practices in Forensic Mental Health—Dr. David D. Luxton, Ph.D., M.S., Workforce Development Administrator, Office of Forensic Mental Health Services, DSHS and, Ingrid Lewis, Liaison and Diversion Specialist, Office of Forensic Mental Health, DSHS

This training session will provide information and best practice strategies as it relates to the forensic mental health population in jails, particularly in light of the 2015 Trueblood v DSHS federal court decision and injunction.

8:00 AM 12:00 PM Training Session: *Dangerous Crossroads: The Intersection of the First and Fourth Amendments Room 111C

Scott MacLatchie, Attorney
Womble Carlyle Sandridge & Rice LLC
Charlotte, NC

Officers in the field are increasingly encountering citizens boldly asserting what they think are constitutional rights guaranteed by the First and Fourth Amendments. This session will examine the crossroads where these two constitutional principles intersect, and provides practical tips for dealing with people who may be legitimately exercising constitutional rights, and others who are actively trying to bait officers into overreaction

12:00 PM 1:00 PM Lunch Rooms 111AB

1:00 PM 3:00 PM Training Session: *Saving Lives Through Below 100 Room 111C

Dale Stockton, Executive Director
Below 100
Rob Beidler, Undersheriff
Snohomish County Sheriff's Office
Additional Speakers TBA

This training session will provide information on the life-saving benefits of the Below 100 Program and will discuss implementation strategies and real life results when adopted.

3:00 PM 3:30 PM Break

3:30 PM 5:00 PM Joint Training Session with Fire Chiefs Association Ballroom 300BCD

Dr. Michael Nichols
The Guidestone Group

Every decision results in one of two outcomes – it either creates more simplicity or it creates more complexity; and the majority of decisions many leaders are making are creating more complexity. In this keynote, Michael Nichols gives 4 practices that will help every leader simplify their life, work, and leadership to become a leader people want to follow.