Committees

Committees are the mechanism by which the members come together in smaller groups to conduct the business of the Association. Committees are formed by the WASPC Executive Board. Any member can serve on any committee simply by requesting inclusion.

- The Vice President of the Association serves as the Board Liaison to all Standing WASPC Committees. The Liaison communicates with each committee quarterly and reports back to the WASPC Executive Board at each regularly scheduled meeting.
- The Vice President of the Association serves as a member of the Finance and Personnel Committee.

WASPC intends to:

- Annually conduct a review of all committees. The review will be conducted by the President, President-Elect, Vice President and Past-President, at the annual Board Retreat. Inactive members may be removed. New chairs/co-chairs for the committee may be appointed by the President.
- Maintain the following standing committees: Boating Safety; Corrections; Financial and Personnel; Homeland Security/Intelligence; Indian Country Law Enforcement; Law Enforcement Training; Legislative; Membership; Model Policy; NIBRS Advisory; Past Presidents; Professional Services; Sex Offender Registration & Notification; Small Agency; Technology; Traffic Safety; and University Policing.

- Assign a WASPC staff member to serve as a staff liaison/convener for each committee.
- Create Ad-Hoc committees and taskforces that are single-issue driven. Taskforces and Ad-Hoc committees are created by the President and shall continue only during the term of that President. The Association offers various programs, projects and services which support WASPC's mission to enhance collaboration among law enforcement executives.

Conferences

Conferences are a key service that WASPC provides its members. The conferences provide for training, networking, contact with vendors, and the conduct of Association business. Legislation

WASPC serves as the centralized point for the monitoring and influencing of law enforcement related legislation both at the state and federal level. The most effective lobbying effort utilizes the efforts of WASPC's members; however, it is recognized that there must be a coordination effort that is accomplished by staff, both full-time and contract.

WASPC intends to:

Research and Planning

WASPC recognizes that there are many issues facing law enforcement executives in their respective communities. In addition to those issues that are readily apparent there are other emerging issues that will present themselves in the future. WASPC will research these issues with its strategic partners to provide a forum for in-depth discussions and work to provide its members a response framework.

WASPC intends to:

- Continue to work with the Criminal Justice Training Commission on the Justice Based Policing initiative; including, the presentation of information to WASPC members.
- Schedule presentations from subject matter experts on current and emerging issues.
- Continue to work with the State Department of Corrections to review changes to the current corrections system in the state. Develop methodologies that will allow for cost savings on the part of cities, counties, tribal jails, the state and federal bureau of prisons. This should include collaboration in the area of jail medical expense and jail pharmaceuticals.
- Continue to work with universities and institutions of higher learning to conduct research into contemporary law enforcement public safety issues..

Operational
