WASHINGTON ASSOCIATION OF SHERIFFS AND POLICE CHIEFS

CAMPBELL'S RESORT
CHELAN, WASHINGTON
NOVEMBER 18-21, 2019

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs' 2019 Fall Training Conference at Campbell's Resort on Lake Chelan.

As WASPC's new President for 2019-20, I am pleased that we are able to host the conference in Chelan County once again this year to showcase Central Washington's beautiful landscape. I have always found the fall conference to be a very worthwhile commitment of time and a great opportunity to make valuable personal connections with fellow law enforcement executives. The conference gives us an opportunity to network, to share information, and to discuss important topics and formulate policy decisions moving forward.

WASPC has a wealth of knowledge at your disposal to mentor and develop your command staff, and we encourage their participation as associate members. WASPC committees are at the core of the Association and represent years of combined knowledge from Chiefs, Sheriffs, Corrections Chiefs and Jail Managers, and other law enforcement professionals. Most of WASPC's committees meet here at the conference. Please take the time to attend as many as you are able. And, if there is one that you'd like to become a member of, no invitation is necessary!

Agenda highlights for the 2019 Fall Training Conference include remarks from State Attorney General Bob Ferguson at the opening lunch on Tuesday, a lessons learned panel about the AMTRAK Nisqually train derailment, an executive refresher on Sex Offender Registration & Notification requirements. On Wednesday, we have a workshop on Building a Culture of Accountability, Wellbeing and Anti-Fragility in Law Enforcement presented by Dr. Mitch Javidi, a globally recognized leader and founder of the National Command & Staff College, Institute for Credible Leadership Development and the Criminal Justice Commission for Credible Leadership Development.

We have a very user friendly, fully featured app that includes everything you need to stay up to date on the conference. It is available for download from your app store for Windows, iOS, and Android operating systems. We encourage everyone to try it.

It is my hope that you will find the 2019 Fall Training Conference to be time well spent. Please take advantage of all the conference has to offer to make the most of your experience here.

Sincerely,
John Snaza, WASPC President
Thurston County Sheriff

DRAFT LEGISLATIVE AGENDA FOR CONSIDERATION

Washington Association of
SHERIFFS &
POLICE CHIEFS

2020 LEGISLATIVE AGENDA

As recommended by the WASPC Executive Board on September 13, 2019 in Leavenworth, WA.

LAW AND JUSTICE DAY: JANUARY 29, 2020 · 9:00 AM · COLUMBIA ROOM

BASIC LAW ENFORCEMENT ACADEMY

One of the cornerstones of Washington's world class law enforcement system is a centralized training academy where all law enforcement officers learn the basics of policing, including crisis intervention, and de-escalation techniques.

Washington's law enforcement agencies have struggled, for more than a decade, with excessive wait times getting newly hired officers into the academy, causing a multitude of preventable public safety challenges.

Addressing the capacity needs of the Basic Law Enforcement Academy requires 4 distinct actions:

1. Amend RCW 43.101.200 to require basic training to begin within two months of employment;
2. Increase the maintenance-level number of BLEA classes each state fiscal year to no less than 15;
3. Fund at least 2 additional BLEA classes for FY 21; and
4. Fund a separate, special appropriation to the Governor to fund additional BLEA classes as caseloads require.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR SHERIFF

The County Sheriff is the chief executive officer and the conservator of the peace of the county. The Sheriff hires, fires, and supervises law enforcement officers, and sets policy on their pursuits, use of force, among many other life-impacting decisions. Sheriffs deputies are required to be certified peace officers. The Sheriff, however, is not.

Under current law, a person need only be a registered voter in the county to run for the Office of Sheriff.

A Sheriff should, at the very least, possess the minimum qualifications required of those whom the Sheriff oversees.

CERTIFICATION OF CORRECTIONS OFFICERS

All general authority Washington law enforcement officers must hold a valid peace officer certification "as a condition of continuing employment." Certification establishes certain pre-hire screening and evaluation measures, ensures that officers have received the required training, and that their license to be a peace officer can be revoked for failure to maintain their training or for disqualifying misconduct.

Corrections officers do not have similar requirements.

In fact, a corrections officer who resigns prior to being terminated can, and sometimes does, get hired by another corrections agency despite the corrections officer's lack of training or prior misconduct.

Requiring all corrections officers to receive and maintain certification, and establishing a process for de-certification, enables a standard level of minimum training and conduct for those who have unprecedented authority over incarcerated persons.

Current law specifically prohibits photo enforcement information (red light cameras, toll enforcement, etc) as evidence in a criminal investigation or court proceeding. This prohibition has inhibited the investigation of crimes where information regarding the suspect is believed to have been captured with photo enforcement.

This prohibition will ultimately also obstruct efforts to locate children subject to an AMBER Alert and vulnerable adults subject to a SILVER Alert.

Law enforcement officers should be authorized to access this information with a search warrant. Furthermore the information obtained should be admissible to convict the guilty and exonerate the innocent.
