CONFERENCE SCHOLARSHIPS

HISTORY:
The Small Agency Committee proposed a scholarship program for Sheriffs or Police Chiefs to attend WASPC Conferences that have not attended in the past due to budgetary issues.

The Executive Board directed the Small Agency Committee to draft criteria for the scholarship and report back.

The WASPC Executive Board supports the concept and agrees to fund scholarships (up to $750.00 each). The scholarships will cover the cost of conference registration fees and assist with lodging. The annual scholarship budget will be will be proposed by the finance committee to the Executive Board annually at the WASPC Fall Conference.

CRITERIA:
A. Any Sheriff or Police Chief who is not able to attend a WASPC Conference due to budgetary constraints may apply. However, preference shall be given to any Sheriff or Police Chief that has never attended a WASPC Conference.
B. WASPC Membership is not mandatory, but preferred. If a scholarship is awarded to a non-member, the non-member will consider joining WASPC. If a scholarship is awarded to a WASPC member, that member shall consider future participation in the Association (i.e., committee work, board representative, etc.)
C. Departmental Command Staff that are members of WASPC may be considered for scholarships. Consideration shall be based on the department’s budgetary constraints.

APPLICATION PROCESS:
A. SHERIFF / POLICE CHIEF: A letter addressed to the WASPC Treasurer requesting consideration for a conference scholarship. The letter should include explanation of financial burden placed on the department and/or lack previous conference attendance
B. COMMAND STAFF: Same as above requirements, to include an endorsement from the Sheriff / Police Chief supporting your continued involvement with WASPC.
