

CHELAN COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

Lateral Deputy

2015 Starting Salary Range: $4,577.29— $5,046.57/ month DOE, plus longevity after 5 yrs. per union contract.

Benefits: Excellent benefits, LEOFF II retirement, education incentive, specialty team incentive pay, and take home patrol vehicles.

INTEGRITY * TEAMWORK * EXCELLENCE

AT A GLANCE:

Community— Chelan County is 2,920 square miles in size and is located in the center of the state. Chelan County has four distinct seasons, 300 sunshine-filled days a year, rivers, lakes, and mountains nearby. If you want to experience nature, Chelan County offers outdoor enthusiasts a wealth of adventure - from golfing, boating, kayaking, skiing, hiking and camping to hunting, fishing, rock climbing and whitewater rafting.

Department— Chelan County Sheriff's Office offers a number of specialty team opportunities including SWAT, Search and Rescue, Air Support, and K9, High Angle Rope Rescue, Marine Patrol, White Water Rescue, ORV Deputy, Honor Guard, Traffic Unit, Drug Task Force. There are 59 full-time, commissioned officers in the department and the patrol squads works 12 hour shifts.

TO APPLY:

- Submit completed application and letter of interest to Civil Service - Katie.Batson@co.chelan.wa.us
- Application and additional information can be found at www.co.chelan.wa.us/human-resources
- Phone: 509-667-6311

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

Applicants for Lateral Field Deputy must:

- 1) Have been employed continuously for 12 months as a full-time employee of a public law enforcement agency in a comparable position;
- 2) Have been employed in this capacity within last two years;
- 3) Have successfully completed a probationary period; and
- 4) Have successfully completed the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Basic Law Enforcement Academy, or be qualified to take the Washington State equivalency course.