REDMOND POLICE CHIEF DARRELL LOWE RE-ELECTED CHIEF AT-LARGE OF STATEWIDE LAW ENFORCEMENT ORGANIZATION

(Lacey) --- Redmond Police Chief Darrell Lowe was named Chief At-Large of the board of the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs (WASPC). Chief Lowe was first named to the position in 2020 and was recently elected to another term by the membership at the organization's May meeting.

“Chief Lowe’s re-election to the WASPC Board is a reflection of his leadership and the esteem in which he is held statewide by our Sheriffs and Chiefs,” said Steve Strachan, WASPC executive director.

WASPC was founded in 1963 and consists of executive and top management personnel from law enforcement agencies statewide. With more than 800 members it includes the 39 elected county sheriffs, and 240 police chiefs, as well as the Washington State Patrol, the Washington Department of Corrections, and representatives of Tribal and federal agencies.

WASPC is the only association of its kind in the nation combining representatives from local, state, tribal, and federal law enforcement into a single body, working toward a common goal. WASPC's function is to provide specific materials and services to all law enforcement agencies in the state, members, and non-members alike.
